PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, there is an undeniable need in our complex civilization for a moral and spiritual revival for greater trust in Divine Guidance; and

WHEREAS, outstanding men in business, religious, and educational affairs have organized a non-sectarian effort throughout the nation to promote church attendance and Bible reading; and

WHEREAS, they urge all Americans in their program to "Give God a Chance"; and

WHEREAS, it is necessary for each individual American amidst the complexities of everyday living to turn to a power greater than his own;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the period of March 23rd to March 29th, 1952, as a week in which all South Dakotans, regardless of church affiliation, should and I urge all South Dakotans to observe this week according to the dictates of their own spiritual habits, and in so doing conduct a personal inventory to examine the extent to which they have been giving God a chance in their everyday living.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 25th day of March, 1952.
